LOTUS COUNSELING

The roots of a long lasting relationship are Mindfulness, Deep Listening, and Loving Speech.
- Thich Nhat Hanh -

COUPLES

Looking to deepen your roots together? Conscious and disciplined dialogue is key! Utilizing a solution focused approach means that the conversations we have in the therapy room will be guided in a positive manner; we will focus on your strengths and resiliency while also creating a safe place to explore growth areas and expand your connection together.

CONSCIOUS RELATIONSHIP SUPPORT ALONG THE SPECTRUM

Pre-Marital

Together we'll explore your strength & growth areas and discuss the patterns from your Families of Origin. Through various curated talking points, you'll cultivate mindful skills for communicating with greater ease, as well as for more effective conflict resolution. And, with chronic stress threatening the mind, body, and relationships of everyone in our culture, stress management is a crucial topic. In this program, you'll explore common stressors and learn tools to help better prioritize and manage stress both individually and relationally.

Creating a Family

Our work together can serve to create conscious conversations about expectations related to the physical, mental, spiritual, & relational aspects of conceiving and preparing for and nurturing a family. Drawing from extensive training in family systems, as a Marriage and Family therapist I believe that the greatest way that I can serve to impact the family is through supporting the harmony and wellness of the marital and parental dynamic. Healthy, thriving marital relationships create and nurture healthy, thriving children and communities.

PRE-MARITAL TOPICS OF FOCUS

Communication

Together we'll discuss the patterns from your Families of Origin and cultivate skills for communicating with greater ease, as well as for more effective conflict resolution.

Stress Management

Chronic stress is a serious threat not only to your physical health, but also to the ease with which you navigate your relationships and transitions. We will explore common stressors and learn tools to help better manage stress.

Intimacy

Together we'll consider what it means to feel connected to one another, by exploring and enhancing the various ways that you express love, affection, and respect for one another

REVIEWS

Here's what couples are saying:

MR. & MRS. H

Since the pandemic began, my husband and I really wanted to put our marriage first. Tending to our relationship was always something we both valued, but we lost sight of it as a priority somewhere in our 10 years together. We are forever grateful to Laura for helping us remember who we wanted to be together from the beginning. Through our work we were both held accountable, and we felt truly seen and heard by her. We took our connection to a deeper level, which is exactly what we were looking to accomplish.

C. & J.

The idea of Pre-Marital counseling scared us at first, but right away we felt comfortable and like we were in good hands. Laura helped us to build upon the strengths we have as a couple while also creating a safe place to address our challenges. Would and have already recommended this program to friends.

L. & M.

We did Pre-Marital with Laura and were blown away by the growth we experienced in just a couple weeks. We actually loved the process and were excited to go to our sessions each time. We felt safe and hopeful and became fans of therapy after this.

K. & C.

Did not expect to feel more connected and loved - we just wanted to improve our communication. We are thrilled with the process of counseling with Laura and would highly recommend working with her. Take the chance, you will not regret it!
